

What a load of Buzzcoats!

Look down the stairs, no BUBBLES stall is there? thats cos were in da Bar. It was getting to be a bit of a crush where we were, so were seeing how it goes in the Bar. Dare say next gig we shall be somewhere else. We shall be open till the end of the gig as usual, O.K.?

Well we eventually caught up with the STIFF tour at Wolverhampton (Gawd what an ole) despite the location it was very good. Wreckless Eric is a complete nut, Dave Edmunds wuz very much the worst for wear, backstage. Two nights previous at Barbs (same night as we had the Rods) it was Nick Lowes' turn to hit the bottle, and by all accounts he really hit it. What wuz da Stiffs doin at Barbs? went to check out the Heartbreakers and Siouxsie & the Banshees didnt they. Apparently Siouxsie really burnt the place up with a really hot set, while Johnny Thunders lost his rag with the front row Gobbers. Pity Nick Lowe dont like Siouxsie, still Stiffs will be Stiffs. We heard that Barbs is owned by the Birmingham Underworld. What we got lined up for next year? nothing yet, except those Fab RAMONES. High on the list are The Adverts, Elvis Costello & The Boomtown Rats. No doubt The Jam & Eddie and the Hot Rods will be returning during 1978, (o.k. Jammy?).

What bout BLONDIE then? tour down to 3 dates. By the time were all reading this we shall know whether they bothered at all. They are now supposed to be doing the original tour ^{early} early in the new year. Don't worry were checking that out now. I mean that old dressing room wouldn't be the same after Debbie's used it!

If there's anybody you reckon we should get, then tell us, were only too pleased to hear from ya. Also we'd like to know whether the 3 gigs last month was too much. Usually it's one or two a month, but this time it all came at once, and the bands we had to turn down, well that would really make yer hair curl (whats left of it).

Oh yeh meant to tell yer last time, at the AC/DC gig a couple of Black Sabbath were seen rubbing shoulders wif u lot, also the Jenny Daren Band were ligin round and all. At the Rods gig The Kursal Flyers were to be found backstage, all drinking like there was no tomorrow.

Is there anybody who comes to our gigs regularly from Cheltenham, Gloucester area who could give a lift to a couple of girls? If so write and let us know, and we'll pass yer letters on.

In the next issue, the exploits of a bass guitarist before he met up with a local punk band. Also where not to take tea in Worcester!!!

Finally, a certain local Rag posing as a News paper wuz gonna do a feature on Punk. Trouble was all the info & pics gathered just weren't sensational enough, and when it was suggested that a few things could be distorted & made up nobody would be a party to it. Thank God someones got some sence. On that note i'd better jack it in, see ya.
