HEARTBREAKERS + support bands,
MALVERN WINTER GARDENS,
SATURDAY JULY 23rd. £1.25 ADV. £1.50 DOOR.

ADVERTISING is the name of the support band tonite, more than that i can't tell ya.

JOHNNY THUNDERS Heartbreakers is our next gig on Saturday 23rd July. Were not sure at this stage whos gonna be supporting, BUZZ COCKS or SLAUGHTER & THE DOGS might be one and THE WASTERS a local outfit might be the other. Incidentally there's more than one or two luminaries in that band which we shall tell you about next time.

STRANGLERS will be playing the Gardens in September. They start another tour then and we have first choice of dates cos of the cock up over our date on the last tour.

RAMONES we hope to have when they return to this country again in the Autumn. The only two things which will prevent us is, one promoter doing the tour or an extortionate fee. Same goes for BLONDIE, if we do get them i shall be selling back stage tickets at a rip off price, sorry though guys, you'll have to wait cos i've got first go with Deborah Harry. Must check out French Noo Wavers, STINKY TOYS cos they also boast of a tasty punkette by the name of Elli Medeiros.

2, 3, 4 back to the RAMONES though. Did you hear the interview with them on "Rock On"? Oh, it was a treat. They appear to have the same views on goils as we do, "There only after you for yer money". Hence DEE-DEE and the boys doin such classics as, Suzy is a headbanger, I don't wanna walk around with you, and You're a loud mouth baby, you better shut it up, i'm gonna beat you up.

AC/DC aint new wave we know, but their high on energy, so that qualifies them for a return visit to the Gardens again in October, that ought to please you GIRLS.

Even more lust info 4 u girls. TOM PETTY much to my surprise was interested in playing the Gardens. Trouble was the price was rather high as you can imagine, that would have made tickets expensive, and we would need a capacity crowd to make it worthwhile. We didn't reckon he would pull a capacity in Malvern so we blew it out. Anyroad we'll check the scene out again when he returns again.

Still no go with the PISTOIS for Malvern. Council wont entertain the matter. We shall keep trying, that you can be sure.

BUY NOW! STARVE LATTER. There's a stall ^{at} entrance to the Pump Room which should have loads of goodies on it. At the time of this thing goin to print half the stuff hadn't arrived so i can't tell yer whats there.

Send a LARGE S.A.E. to us or call for HEARTBREAKER tickets and i'll try and see that you get a J.T.H. photo. We dont have that many so you might have to make do with other goodies.
