

SPECIAL · LIMITED · EDITION

The first 10,000 in Black & White then after, they're in Your IMAGINATION!

I'm sick of people moaning about us putting on too much New Wave. So far this year we've had two New Wave bands, i don't consider 2 gigs in 8 months exploiting the movement.

Actually most of the Old Wave bands are fast becoming extinct, (gig wise). To give you an idea, a few days before the Jam played Malvern, The Cortinas (remember them, our school kid support band at the Damned gig) played the Marquee pulling a capacity crowd of 1,500, over 300 people were turned away. Now down the road Caravan were gigin at, another venue, funny thing was they had a struggle to pull 1,300!

We had RAMONES lined up for December 14th, thats now been put back to 8th MARCH 1978. Really it was too good to be true, Blondie followed by Ramones, anyway these things happen. All the other dates overleaf are confirmed. STRANGLERS tickets wont be available until late September O.K. They will be £1.50 in advance and £1.75 on the door (if theres any left!).

At the time of going to print we were considering Generation X for late November and John Miles for Christmas, so write in and let us know what you think.

If BLONDIE doesn't mean anything to ya, go to GOOSSES RECORDS in Worcester and tell them to play the album for you. That place is without a doubt the best record shop in the city.

If it's those hard to find PUNK records you're after, then trot along to FEARNSIDES in Malvern. Sure i know a few other places are doing the odd Stiff, Chiswick and Step Forward but FEARNSIDES have the most comprehensive selection, i know, cos we supply em, see! Check out the Badges, Fanzines and other goodies at that place as well.

Anyway thats all cos were off to see the Pistols posing as the Spots at Wolverhampton tonight, bet it doesn't happen.

As most of you know we were to have had RAMONES on Dec 14th. Their British tour has now been put back to March, so we're all got a few ^{more} months to wait. They WILL play Malvern, you see! christmas date to be fixed.

No longer do you have to take chances, pay postage & wait ages with Mail Order, go on a pilgrimage to London or Birmingham. Cos we've got the LOT!
