

DARLING, LETS HAVE ANOTHER BABY

It would appear from some of the people we've talked to that they didn't go for Elvis too much. Well thats the third time we've seen him and we reckon he gets better each time we see him. If you wanted Allison, Red Shoes etc. you should have gone and seen him last year. In our opinion thats the best gig we've had since The Damned and AC/DC (first time). Tonights gig should be good as well, this will make the fourth time we've seen the Adverts, so that speaks for itself. By the way did you know there's two hundred Adverts albums on RED VINYL.

Back to Elvis again. The sound engineer for the tour, Paddy, (don't put your glasses down there or else) also did the mixing for the Rich Kids tour. Apparently when he was doing a run through on Costellos set prior to the tour, E.C. was playin' away when he just stopped, unplugged his guitar, walked off stage, down the wings, round the back of the mixer, tapped Paddy on the shoulder and exchanged several words about the sound quality, walked back on stage and continued. Now if you've ever seen a band doing a sound check or practise, you'll now it's normal to yell a string of abusive words and phrases to the sound engineer from the stage. Incidentally, the support band were, The Mickey Jupp band. One time boss of Stiff Records and now Radar, Jake Rivera was at the gig. He's been to Malvern several times before with the Feelgoods and the Damned. Elvis will be returning probally later this year, by which time you'll all be into this years model and he'll be doin a different set!

We've been meaning to tell ya this for some time now. Over in Hereford, Buzz Music have started dealing in new and second hand group equipment. They've got all sorts of gear at realistic prices. So if you're in the market for some gear go over and check them out at 65, Widemarsh Street it's by the football ground.

Also there's gonna be a new venue for live bands in Hereford starting in May, (i think its at a pub), again Buzz Music have all the details. The Tights might be playin the Phoenix Club in Malvern on April 11th. At the time of typing this were not sure as there trying to get some staging together. If you saw the Vendettas there you can understand why they want staging. By the time you read this, the position will be resolved one way or the other. A new band, "The Case" will be playing the Phoenix very soon, and i for one am really looking forward to seeing them. Oh yeh, the manager of the Vendettas is gettin a band together called, 'The Bad Do Wops', so watch out Darts! He also played me a tape the other day of some stuff he and another guy have done, described it as serious music.

THERES SOME MORE ON THE OTHER SIDE!

Another date to take note of is April 25th, SIOUXSIE & THE BANSHEES at Barbarells. I can hear the moans now, look just cos your friends don't like em, doesn't mean to say you have to dislike them, be objective for once. Why does everything have to be in the top twenty and be exposed adnausea, before people get into it round here? (Blondie, Devo, Athea & Donna, to quote but a few.) I don't know whether to pursue this now, perhaps i had't better it might get a bit too involved . Quite a few people have asked why we don't put some Reggae bands on, well what do you reckon? Reggae Regulars, Steel Pulse, Black Slate, Merger, etc. Let us know. Anyway i wont detain you any longer as i'm sure your all dying to see the famous Fearnside Phil spinning the platters tonight.
