3 ADELAIDE HOUSE
21 WELLS ROAD
GREAT MALVERN
WORC'S

We stock as many independent labels as possible
Major releases if they are relevant, i.e.
The Clash, Buzzcocks Etc. Foreign imports.

We are pleased to be able to offer a representative selection of independent and minority appeal records. We only deal in the music that we actually like.

As recommended retail prices of new albums are outrageous, i.e. The new BLONDIE L.P. is £4.49 in W.H. Smiths. We do it for £3.35

We sell records because we enjoy them, unlike high street record shops who do it as a business.

Call round and see us any Saturday afternoon
NEW RELEASES coming out soon.

This old lady is coming down some stairs see, when all of a sudden her glass eye falls out and goes rolling down the stairs. Now at the bottom there are four pots of paint, Red, Yellow, White and purple. Which one did the glass eye fall into?

Well bet you didn't expect to be at a gig prior to the Feelgoods did you? Fact was, it turned out to be a last minute rush job with more than its fair share of problems. Biggest one was, some young female had booked the Gardens for a birthday party. To cut a very long story short, we had to pay her to pull out of the date, so here we are. Tonite promises to be a real goodie as we kick off with the excellent Scottish band, the Skids. If you listen to the 'Peel' you will already know that he has been singing their praises for ages now. The bands new single secret suburbia first on the Virgin label, along with their debut Charles E.P. are both available tonite from Bubbles. The Stranglers will be along later and will be playing a massive two hour set.

As you all know by now, we have a lot of bands coming to Malvern in a comparatively short space of time. Most of the bands are big timers, so ticket demand is naturally going to be heavy. If you want to see the Feelgoods, Buzzcocks, Hawkwind etc., it's absolutely no use whatsoever going to buy tickets the day before the gig. So take heed and buy now cos we aint keeping any back for the door, first come, first served. Feelgood, Wire, Buzzcocks and Radio Stars tickets all on sale now.

Talking of Dr. Feelgood, have you heard their new album, 'Private Practice?' I must admit, I've never rated the Feelgoods at all except for the first album, but the new one is something else. Seems it's finally come together with John and the rest of um.

As you can see from the cover, the Tights second single is now available, in fact you can save money and buy a copy tonite from Bubbles for a mere 70p. H.M.V. in Birmingham are selling the first single for 99p, recommended price is only 75p, amazin eh?

Such a pity in it, you've got this far down the page and you aint spotted any spelling mistakes. Well I wouldn't like to disappoint u see ears a few.

O.K. then, back to the old lady and her glass eye, was the white paint, wasn't, cos the whiteness catches the eye!!!

Ugh!

P.S. 'The Tights' are playing 'The Plough' Cheltenham on Tuesday 3rd October
