

cherry Red, 3 Adelaide House, 21 Wells Road, Malvern.

George and Ethel were lying dead on the floor.

The room they were in was empty except for one table, with broken glass and water on the floor. There was only one door into the room which was locked and one window which was wide open. No one entered or left that room. George and Ethel didn't commit suicide. They weren't murdered, they didn't have heart attacks and they didn't kill each other. How did they die?

Well this is another of those all too rare gigs that promises to be excellent. I'm afraid your Jam & Pretenders gigs are o.k. but very disposable! Tonights support band are THE PRIMAL SCREAMERS, which you already know have signed to our label and will be releasing an E.P. in a month or so. I'm not gonna bore you by telling you how excellent they are, we wouldn't have signed them if we didn't rate them, you'll have to make your own mind up.

Our next gig is THE UNDERTONES on Saturday May 17th, all tickets are £3 and go on sale in the next few days. £3 may seem a bit steep to you, it does to us! but there was nothing we could do about it. We had to have the Tones tour support band, and were made to pay a really heavy price for them, besides which the Tones were far from cheap!

After the Undertones we have the BEAT on Saturday 7th June, which should be good. Having seen all the bands that have been on the two-tone label at some time or another I think the Beat are by far the best of the bunch. The two singles they have done are not really representative of the band. Live they are essentially a great reggae band. Anyroad dare say the gig will be well attended so you can judge for yourself..

Apart from our gigs at the Gardens the only other place we see any action around here is the Phoenix Club at the Nags Head, Link Top. I know I keep on about this but its important. The only gig local bands can play is the Phoenix and seeing as there are so many new local bands happening its important there is a venue they can play at. The attendance has increased greatly over the last few months which is good. I'd still like to see more of you lot from Worcester there. You seem quite happy to play there but dont seem to support the club when your not. Anyway there are some good things happening this month, if you have never been there for Gods sake get up of your ass and check the place out, admission isn't expensive, so you've no excuse.

Oh yeh, George and Ethel were goldfish. As the window was open the wind blew the goldfish bowl off the table, which smashed onto the floor.
